HUMAN + AI, WORKING AS ONE

The CRM that does the admin, so your team can sell.

Centaur is a sales CRM with AI agents built into its fabric, not bolted on top. They answer inquiries, qualify leads, book meetings and keep every deal up to date. Your reps get their day back.

01

Reps sell. Agents do the rest.

Replies drafted, calls summarized, records updated from every email. No more Friday-afternoon CRM catch-up.

02

More capacity, same headcount.

Every inbound inquiry gets a fast, qualified response and a meeting offer, day or night.

03

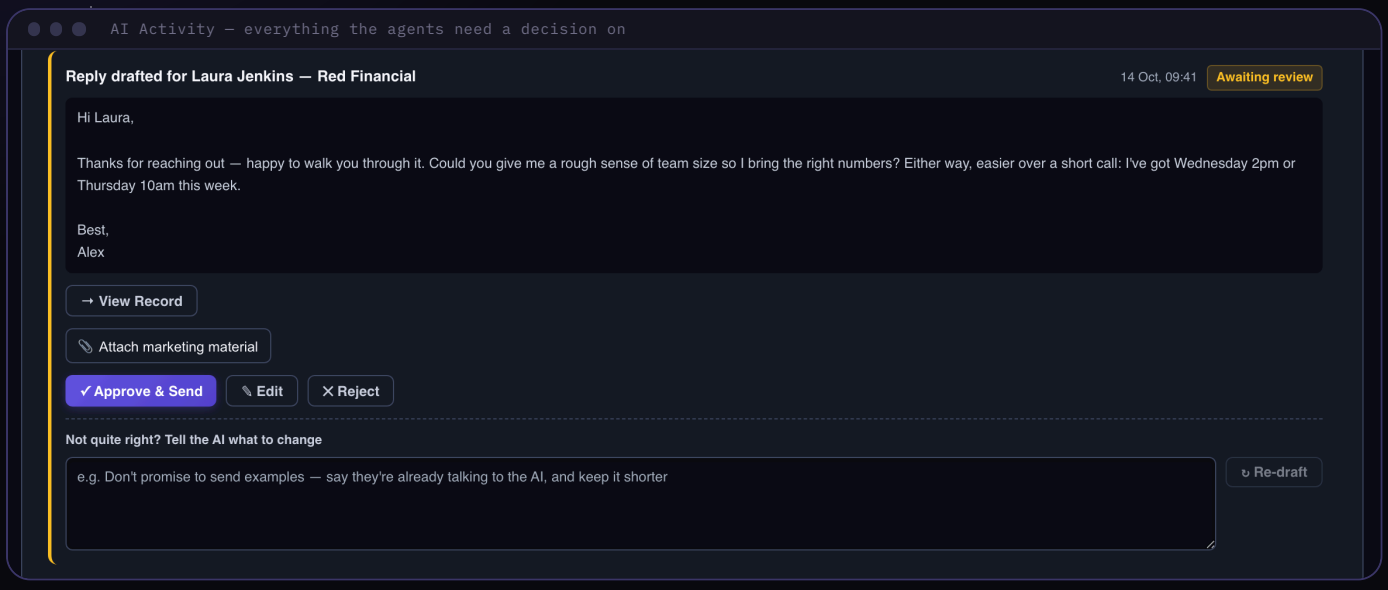

Live in a day, not a quarter.

The AI drafts its own training from your website, and your spreadsheets import just as they are. No consultants, no onboarding fee.

MEET YOUR AI AGENTS

An inquiry lands. The reply is already written.

The agent reads the email, checks the rep's calendar and drafts the answer. Approve it in one click, or let trusted agents send on their own. You choose how much rope they get.

THE OPENER · OUTREACH

Answers, qualifies, books.

Replies to new inquiries in the prospect's own thread, asks the qualifying questions, offers free calendar slots and books the meeting.

THE ANALYST · OPPORTUNITY

Keeps every deal current.

Reads the emails and call notes on open deals and updates the record: value, close date, competitors, next steps. Flags risk before it bites.

THE BRIEFER & THE SCRIBE

Briefed before. Logged after.

A brief ahead of each meeting, and Teams call transcripts turned into a summary with the record updated for you.

Real product screens. Demo workspace with fictional data.
